Illegal aliens found working at Hancock industrial park

BY DENA BISNETTE

The U.S. Border Patrol has detained 17 illegal Mexican, Honduran and Salvadoran aliens found working for a subcontractor at Port Bienville Industrial Park.

Border Patrol agents David Mandel and Joseph Swider visited the Hancock County Sheriff's Department Friday to check on three suspected illegals who had been detained, just one day after four other suspects were apprehended by Waveland Police Department.

Swider said the 17 aliens had been apprehended within the last four to six weeks. All 17, along with several people who were questioned and found to be legal U.S. residents, worked for Tecon, Inc., a Houston, Texas, firm working on an expansion project at the Borg Warner Chemical site.

Tecon is a subcontractor to J.E. Merit Construction, the construction arm of Borg Warner's engineering firm, Jacobs Engineering of Houston, according to Borg Warner Plant Manager Leo Kowal.

Kowal said Borg Warner has a fixed-price contract with Jacobs Engineering, which chooses its subcontractors through J.E. Merit.

He said Borg Warner is not involved with hiring subcontractors or their employees.

"We are never involved in it so we don't know what happens unless the Border Patrol checks with us," Kowal explained.

"We don't like to see this sort of thing happen. A lot of people know Tecon is working on the Borg Warner site and don't understand that we are not involved."

J.E. Merit's office on the Borg Warner site is closed on Fridays and no one was available for comment.

Mandel said Tecon is not violating any law by having illegal aliens working on its project. Those who were apprehended were laborers, paid about $6 per hour, or insulators, paid about $9 per hour.

"No one is violating the law by working illegal aliens. It's illegal for them to be here, but it's not illegal to hire them," the agent said.

Mandel added that some states, including Louisiana, have passed laws to make it illegal to hire the aliens but Mississippi has not.

He said several bills have been introduced by Congress to change the laws regarding illegal aliens, but so far none have passed.

He said it is a felony to transport illegal aliens into the U.S.

The maximum penalty is five years in prison, a $2,000 fine or both.

Swider said the aliens found in Hancock County will be offered a choice of voluntary departure or deportation hearing.

If they choose voluntary departure, they will be detained for a short time at a Border Patrol center in Oakdale, La., then bussed back to the U.S.-Mexico border at Brownsville, Texas.

If they choose to request a hearing, they have the same rights to bond or an attorney that American citizens have.

Mandel said the Border Patrol has been picking up illegal aliens in Hancock County for years, and now visits Port Bienville on a regular basis.

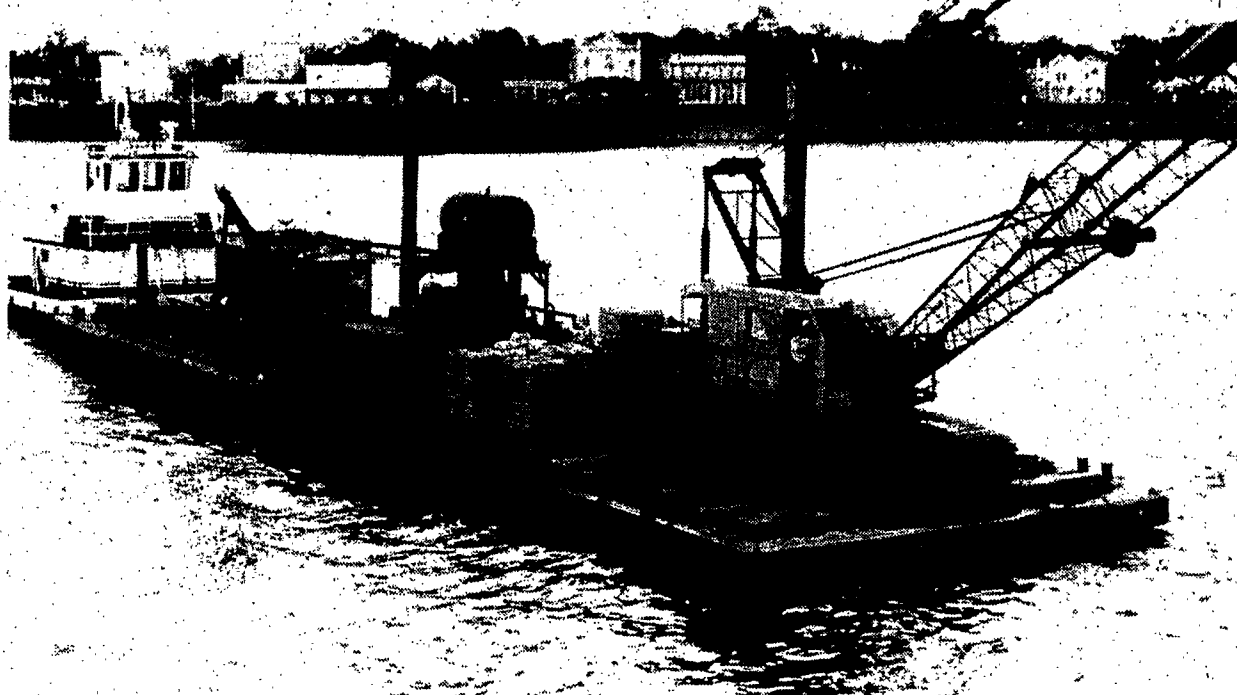

"It used to be unusual," Swider said, "but now it's pretty common." Mississippi has only three Border Patrol agents, but they have caught 890 illegal aliens during the past year.

The agents said most people do not complain about illegals until they or someone close to them have been affected in some way.

"Maybe they failed to get a job that an alien got, or maybe their brother-in-law or cousin lost out on a job," Mandel said.

"People like to say the aliens do work Americans don't want. In some respects that is true when you are talking about field labor, but by the same token a lot of Americans and legal resident aliens do that and they are being hurt," he added.

The Hancock County Sheriff's Department and Waveland Police Department assisted the Border Patrol in apprehending the 17 illegal aliens.

Bay council seeking means to keep utility rate increase low

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The Bay St. Louis Council will be considering several different options before setting the millage Monday.

In the third budget workshop Wednesday council members still requested further budget options and reductions to decrease the amount of additional revenue needed to be generated.

City Clerk Edward Favre told the council that an average of $644,976 per year must be generated above anticipated revenues during the next four years for the utility department.

Basically these additional revenues are necessary to begin debt service payments on $2.5 million of loans for the Farmers Home Administration utility system project and funds needed for the Waveland Regional Wastewater District.

Councilman James Thriffield requested decreases in expenditure projections for capital outlay and isolated utility expenditures.

Other councilmembers agreed and the average amount needed to be generated annually has been reduced by $30,000.

The council stated it would like to be able to prevent any increase but that circumstances beyond its control was requiring the increase.

Monday, Favre will be presenting six options to the council for tax levy and utility rate increases.

The options range from zero percent added revenue from real property taxes to a 40-60 split with needed revenue be generated by both real property tax and utility rate increase.

Bay residents asked to restrict water usage Thursday

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Bay St. Louis officials are requesting all city residents limit the use of water Thursday while an auxiliary power unit is installed at the city's main water well.

"We are asking the public to eliminate all unnecessary use of water between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. and curtail all other uses," Norbert Redmond, director of the department of Public Works, said Friday.

City residents are also asked not to water their lawns Thursday, he added.

Contractors are also requested to halt any work that could rupture a main water line during that time, Redmond said.

"The diesel-powered auxiliary water pump is being installed to allow the city to maintain water service during the power outages that usually occur during extreme weather conditions," Redmond said.

"In addition to the benefit of an improved water service," he said, "the new motor may result in lower insurance premiums for Bay residents through a lower fire insurance rating."

Redmond emphasized that this improvement is to correct a deficiency in the water system and should not be considered as overkill.

"A recently released preliminary engineering study pointed out many deficiencies in the system and we have already begun to correct many of these," he said.

Bay Mayor Victor Franckiewicz said the new motor will save the city from problems caused last year when electricity was knocked out by Hurricane Elena.

EEOC ruling favors City of Bay St. Louis

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission informed Bay St. Louis city officials Friday a discrimination suit filed against the city had been dismissed.

In the suit former Bay St. Louis police officer Winfred Scarborough claimed he had been forced to resign and had been discriminated against because of his race.

Scarborough stated that white patrol officers in similar situations had not been forced to resign.

EEOC Area Director Henne Mathews stated in a letter "examination of the evidence indicates there is not reasonable cause to believe that this allegation is true."

Bay Mayor Victor Franckiewicz Jr. said he believed the dismissal of this suit reflects upgrading in the personnel management procedures within the city.

Supervisors to set millage rates Monday

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors will set its millage rates Monday for the 1986-87 fiscal year.

Millage rates are expected to go up this year in both the county and the Hancock County School District. The rates were proposed at the Sept. 2 board of supervisors meeting.

The proposed millage rates for 1986-87 include a total of 39.5 mills not including the school district and 63.2 with the school district included.

Additional millage will also be levied for the county's fire and water protection districts. Tax levies for that purpose include 1.19 mills for the Kiln Water and Fire Protection District, two mills for Diamondhead Fire Protection District and 5 mills for East Hancock Fire Protection District.

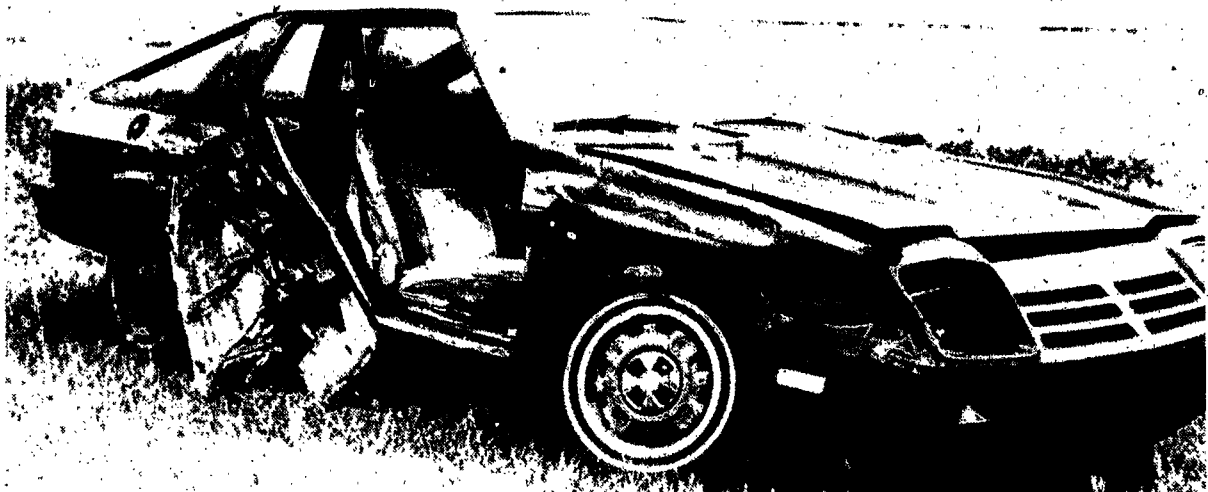

BaySide Park Fire Protection District, recently approved by the board of supervisors, will not begin collecting taxes until 1987-88.

The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. in the boardroom on the second floor of the Hancock County Courthouse.

US-90 ACCIDENT—A Thursday accident on US-90 at Carroll Avenue damaged the side of a vehicle driven by Linda McPherson of Columbus. McPherson said another car pulled out into one of the westbound lanes of the highway and collided with her vehicle. She was able to regain control of her Dodge Charger 22 and stopped it on the grass between the highway and the parallel service road. The other car stopped on the highway median. The accident blocked part of the inside westbound lane for about 20 minutes and is under investigation by Bay St. Louis Police Department. Bay St. Louis Fire Department assisted at the scene. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

Bay man sentenced in assault on deputy

BY DENA BISNETTE

A Bay St. Louis man has been sentenced to one year at the State Penitentiary at Parchman in connection with an assault on a law enforcement officer.

Aloysius Dahl was sentenced Friday by Judge Kosta Vlahos. Dahl can be paroled if he completes a drug and alcohol rehabilitation program, Assistant District Attorney J.P. Compretta said.

Dahl was charged in connection with an assault on Hancock Sheriff's Deputy Tommy Powell when Powell attempted to arrest him for public drunkenness.

Compretta said Dahl changed his plea from not guilty to guilty after Powell, Jailer Sam Necaise and Sheriff Ronald Peterson testified in his Friday afternoon trial.

In other court matters this week,

the following sentences were handed down by Vlahos:

Danny Ray Powell, burglary of dwelling, 10 years in penitentiary or completion of the regimented inmate discipline program;

—Charles Favre, burglary, five years;

—David Mattox, burglary, five years;

—Jeffrey Ferguson, burglary, seven years;

—Ricky Meshell, 10 years, four counts of uttering forgery;

—Robert Jack Smith, probation violation, seven years; and —David Williams, $750 fine plus court costs and three years probation, sale of controlled substance.

Compretta said the trial of Agnel Moran of Fenton, charged with racketeering, was scheduled for this week and has been postponed.

Law enforcement task force to eye consolidation proposal

BY DENA BISNETTE

A task force on consolidation of law enforcement services for Hancock County, Bay St. Louis and Waveland has set its first meeting.

Sheriff Ronald Peterson, temporary chairman for the task force, said the meeting will be 6 p.m. Thursday in the courthouse boardroom.

If the consolidation proposal does not meet with general approval from task force members, the meeting could also be the organization's last.

"We're going to discuss it and see if anybody wants consolidation," Peterson said, "but if we can't work with it we won't pursue it."

County and city officials made appointments to the task force during

July and August after Beat Three Supervisor Roger Dale Ladner proposed a special meeting to discuss consolidation as a cost-saving measure.

Ladner is also a member of the task force.

County representatives on the task force in addition to Peterson and Ladner include Supervisors A.A. Kellar and Sam Perniciaro; and State Representative Walter James Phillips, who will advise the task force on related legislation.

Bay St. Louis will be represented by Police Chief Ray Murphy, Mayor Victor Frankiewicz Jr., and Bay Councilmen John Wilkerson and Charles Johnson. Two councilmen were selected in order that an alternate representative be available.

Waveland will be represented by Police Chief Donald Dorn, Mayor John Longo, and Ward Three Alderman Louis Smolensky. Police Investigator Robert Tartavouille was selected as an alternate.

Areas that have been mentioned as possible starting points for consolidation include communications and investigations, Peterson said.

Quotables by CUEVAS

In case you come across a local telephone number with a 466 prefix, do not be surprised.

Apparently the telephone company has no more numbers available with the prefix of 467 which we are all accustomed to coming across.

The area continues to grow.

It was a big time for the Hancock County Retired Senior Volunteer Program members at their annual awards banquet Friday.

Good food and fun was had by everyone in attendance.

It was especially good to see Sherry Schwabacher up, around, and singing. As many of you know, she is recovering from a car-bicycle accident.

Sherry, in addition to Mayor Vic Frankiewicz and Claudia Murphy, accompanied by Carolyn Mahler on the piano were providing entertainment and also led the group in singing some special songs.

Members received certificates from JoAnn Lagasse, RSVP director, for their many years of service.

A dinner of turkey, dressing, fruit salad, cake and soft drink was served.

Many door prizes were donated by businesses from the community.

The event was held at the Waveland American Legion Post 77 in Waveland, with the turkeys being prepared by members of the Bay St. Louis American Legion Post No. 139.

The Singing Seniors led by Charles Johnson did a fine job, too, entertaining the nearly 300 persons in attendance.

Congratulations to everyone for the many hours of time they devote to our county.

The Hancock County United Way is the sponsor of Hancock County's RSVP.

Many of us are uneasy traveling on Highway 603 because of the occurrence of so many accidents.

Yet, there are those folks who are a lot braver than we are.

Just this past week we noted two young boys riding a bicycle on Highway 603 during a peak traffic period.

A couple of weeks ago, we noted a mother traveling 603 with a very young baby on the back of her bicycle.

All I have to say is some folks are braver than others.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's annual membership drive begins on Monday.

Memberships will be solicited from throughout the county during this drive.

There are business as well as individual memberships.

Businessmen and individuals interested joining the chamber may call 467-9048 for further information.

We hope this will be the most successful membership drive ever in Hancock County.

Letters to the Editor

Motorist seeks action from Waveland PD's 'one-headlight department'

Sept. 9, 1986

Dear Editor:

I hope this letter will bring good results.

Could you please explain to us (concerned citizens of Bay-Waveland area) about the many cars and trucks driving with one headlight?

I have called the Waveland police several months ago and was told,

"We will notify the person in charge of that department."

One evening we were returning home, and on Nicholson Avenue we counted six such vehicles in an eight-to-ten-block area.

Is there a ruling on this matter? Thanks for any information concerning this very serious situation.

Sincerely,
Mrs. T. A. Conway
Waveland

MISSISSIPPIANS 'CUT' $106.9 BILLION FROM FEDERAL DEFICIT

Congress could come within $4.1 billion of eliminating the federal budget deficit by taking the advice of some Mississippians. The state's participants in the nationwide Debt-busters event have recommended a package of budget cuts and tax increases totaling $106.9 billion.

Debt-busters, sponsored by the Roosevelt Center for American Policy Studies, a non-profit, public policy research institute in Washington, D.C., was held simultaneously in all 50 states Sept. 10. Recommendations for reducing the federal deficit will be sent to Congress and the president.

Participants worked in four teams of four members and one alternate each in the areas of taxes; national security and foreign affairs; Social Security, Medicare and federal retirement; and domestic programs. Mississippi's participants included public officials, businessmen, attorneys, physicians and military officers.

Beverly W. Hogan, executive director of the Governor's Office of Federal-State Programs, was the Mississippi moderator. She said participants were chosen to be representative of the people of Mississippi, based on criteria for expertise in the four areas established by the Roosevelt Center.

"The purpose of Debt-busters is to get citizens involved in solving the budget dilemma," Mrs. Hogan said.

The state teams were required to reduce the anticipated 1991 federal budget deficit of $111 billion to $10 billion or less.

The Mississippi participants, in a three-hour meeting at the State Capitol, recommended cuts of $40.3 billion in defense and foreign aid; $37.3 billion in Social Security, Medicare and federal retirement; and $15.4 billion in domestic programs. There was also a recommendation to increase taxes by $13.9 billion on cigarettes, wine and beer.

In defense and foreign aid, the recommendations are to reduce active-duty troops by 250,000, restrict growth in operations and maintenance for one year, reduce foreign aid 10 percent and reduce military construction.

The recommendations for Social Security, Medicare and federal retirement are to restrict the cost-of-living adjustment for Social Security and federal retirees to two percent below the inflation rate for five years, limit the adjustment for younger, non-disabled military retirees and limit physician fees under Medicare.

The domestic recommendations are to end Amtrak subsidies, cut farm price support 50 percent and replace low-income rent and housing construction subsidies with housing vouchers paid directly to low-income, elderly and handicapped individuals.

The tax recommendation would increase levies from 16 to 32 cents for a package of cigarettes, from 3 to 60 cents on a fifth of wine and from 16 to 65 cents on a six-pack of beer.

The list of 41 possible options for budget cuts and tax increases was supplied to the state teams by the Roosevelt Center. Budget cuts not chosen by Mississippi's team include reduction of President Reagan's "Star Wars" plan, elimination of the Midgetman missile and the C-17 transport plane, an increase in Medicare premiums and the deductible, termination of general revenue sharing and abolishment of the Legal Services Corp.

Other possible tax options rejected include increasing the gasoline tax, imposing an oil import fee and limiting or abolishing the federal income deduction on state and local income tax.

Senator Thad Cochran

SENATE PANEL APPROVES $51.7 MILLION FOR STATE AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH PROGRAMS

A Senate Appropriations subcommittee headed by Senator Thad Cochran (R-Miss.) has approved over $51.7 million for agricultural research programs at Mississippi institutions and facilities next year.

Senator Cochran, chairman of the Appropriations subcommittee on Agriculture and Rural Development, said following the panel's markup of the FY 1987 funding bill that allocations for Mississippi programs included:

- $18,875,000 for Agricultural Research Service programs at Mississippi State University, and experiment stations conducting research at Stoneville, Oxford and Poplarville. The Senator noted the subcommittee added $250,000 each for a muscadine research project at Poplarville and national sedimentation work at the Oxford station, above the amounts recommended in the administration's budget.

- $13,600,000 for the Cooperative State Service and Extension Service programs, including those at Mississippi State and Alcorn State universities.

The bill also contains $19,239,000 for eight other programs or projects in the state. This funding includes:

- $14,000,000 for construction of a facility for the Polymer Institute.

- $1,700,000 for Gulf Coast shrimp aquaculture.

- $1,000,000 for an aquaculture center at Mississippi State.

- $951,000 for wood utilization research at MSU.

- $750,000 for curriculum development at Mississippi Valley State University at Itta Bena.

- $400,000 for aquaculture research at the Stoneville experiment station.

- $167,000 for a pilot program for technology transfer.

Funding for boll weevil and fire ant control programs is maintained at current levels.

SMALL-BUSINESS OWNERS VOTE TOP ISSUES FOR CONGRESSIONAL ACTION

Almost 2,000 small-business owners were in Washington in mid-August to tell the White House and the Congress what's on their minds. Hardly anyone else was in Washington that week; the president left town before the conferees produced their slate and Congress adjourned the previous Friday! But the delegates to the White House Conference on Small Business hammered out a powerful legislative agenda.

Regular readers of this column have been exposed to most of the current concerns of small-business owners, but for the record, and for folks in a position to act on them, here are the top ten of 60 recommendations of the conferees:

1. LIABILITY INSURANCE REFORM—The conferees want civil justice reform, uniform standards for product, professional and commercial liability and regulation of the insurance industry.

2. MANDATED BENEFITS—Delegates voiced strong opposition to attempts by government to require firms to provide benefits such as employer-paid health plans and parental or disability leave. They want Congress to reject parental and disability leave legislation and reject proposals for mandated medical coverage.

3. UNFAIR COMPETITION BY NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS—The small-business owners who attended the White House Conference want to put a stop to unfair competition by non-profit, tax-exempt organizations and government agencies.

4. DEFICIT REDUCTION—Small-business owners believe big deficits mean high real interest rates and bode ill for future economic growth. They want immediate action to balance the budget and an iron-clad program to reduce the federal deficit and control spending.

5. REDUCED TRADE DEFICIT—Conferees called for a cabinet-level international trade department to help small firms gain access to foreign markets through negotiations, policy-making and improved trade agreements.

6. STEPPED UP EDUCATION AND TRAINING—A surprise to some, this recommendation calls on the federal government to expand and promote entrepreneurial and free-enterprise education programs in grades K-12, and provide incentives for training and re-training new and current employees.

7. REPEAL DAVIS-BACON—This is a timely recommendation. The Senate, in early August, took action to exempt thousands of small firms from the requirements of the Davis-Bacon Act, which forces employers to pay prevailing wages on federal contracts. The House still must vote. Delegates want to repeal both the Davis-Bacon and the similar Service Contract Acts.

8. SOCIAL SECURITY REFORM—Still fighting the burden of rising payroll taxes, delegates called on Congress to remove all non-retirement programs from Social Security and pay for them from the general treasury. They also want to bring all workers under the system, freeze the employer FICA wage base and tax rate at 1986 levels, cap indexing and cost-of-living adjustments and create a commission to develop alternatives to the present system.

9. REFORM PRODUCT LIABILITY—The conferees underscored the magnitude of the liability insurance crisis by voting a second recommendation in the top ten. This one, specifically addressing product liability reform calls for uniform fault defenses and elimination of joint and several liability.

10. BROADEN EQUAL ACCESS TO JUSTICE LAW—White House Conference Delegates want to make the Internal Revenue Service liable for its actions against small firms which are later found unsupportable by the courts.

Small-business owners tried to send a message from their White House Conference. It remains to be seen whether lawmakers are listening. Their absence from the nation's capital during this session was obvious. That's why the National Federation of Independent Business has organized a legislative fly-in for February 24 and 25, 1987, offering delegates the lobbying strength of that organization to deliver their recommendations directly to those who make the laws.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: John Sloan is president of the National Federation of Independent Business, representing more than half a million small business men and women. Bay St. Louis businessman Paul Montjoy was among those attending the conference.)

New Legion commander promises continued fight against VA cuts

CINCINNATI—The earned rights and benefits of the nation's veterans are in jeopardy and The American Legion's newly elected national commander pledged to the organization's 68th annual National Convention that he will continue to oppose further cuts in the Veterans Administration budget.

James P. "Jimmy" Dean of Corinth, Miss., was elected national commander of the nation's largest veterans' organization at its annual meeting Sept. 4 in Cincinnati.

"It is painfully clear to all of us that the mood in Washington is to keep chipping away at VA programs until this nation's veterans are ultimately deprived of the rights and benefits they earned by serving their country," Dean said. "The American Legion will continue to oppose legislation which makes veterans the victims of a fiscal policy they neither proposed nor supported."

"It is easy to pick on one group when their contributions are all but forgotten. But, I will promise to you that I have not forgotten, and The American Legion has not forgotten, and the battle for equitable health care and benefits is one we cannot afford to lose. The veterans of this nation are looking to us today to protect them. We will not forsake them."

JAMES P. DEAN

Dean takes the helm of the Legion at a critical juncture in the organization's history. After two successive years of growth, the 2.7 million member association of wartime veterans is defending veterans' programs during a time of federal budget constraint.

While the VA has fared well when compared to other federal departments, the agency's medical clientele is aging and growing in number beyond the veteran population it was originally intended to serve.

"Don't be deceived by kind words from Washington," Dean warned the delegates. "Behind those words are the cold blooded budget cutters who do not care what you might contribute. They only care that you cost them money."

"In the past we were called upon to serve in a time of national crisis. We were told that a grateful nation would provide for us if we sacrificed for the common good. We went when we were called, and the reward our more unfortunate brethren will receive could well be a locked door at VA hospitals around the country," Dean said.

"It is almost as if the nation has decided that once we age, our worth is diminished. I reject that notion, because it ignores the basic dignity our service men and women have earned," he said.

The Legion was alone among the nation's major veterans' groups in opposing a means test for admission to VA medical facilities for non-service connected disabled veterans who need medical attention.

Dean noted that the means test is now the law of the land, and the Legion will continue to assist veterans in applying for benefits.

"We will make no effort to frustrate the intention of the law," Dean said. "But we will not stand idly by when we believe that the VA is overstepping the bounds of the law."

The new national commander also renewed the Legion's support for increased financial aid to the Nicaraguan freedom fighters and the Strategic Defense Initiative.

"This nation cannot simply retreat into a cocoon because of bad memories of a war," he said. "Marxists are in power in Nicaragua, and they threaten our very security. As veterans, we owe future generations a secure hemisphere, and our friends in Central America and around the world must know that this nation's resolve to keep the peace is as strong as ever."

Dean urged his fellow Legionnaires to renew their efforts to serve their local communities.

"The American Legion is not just a veterans' organization," he said. "It is an association of men and women who know the value of service, and respect those they serve. We must look around us in our hometowns and our states to see what we can do to help those who are less fortunate than we are."

"It is once again time to let people know what we can offer, and our example can be a shining light to lead others in service."

First Mississippian elected American Legion national commander

By Bill Moran

James P. (Jimmy) Dean of Corinth is the first Mississippian elected national commander of the American Legion.

Dean was born August 26, 1933, in Corinth into an American Legion family. His father, Porter, instilled in Jimmy a love of the American Legion which has never wavered.

Following the family tradition of his father's service as an officer in World War I and World War II, his oldest brother's service as an Air Force pilot and navigator in World War II, and another brother's service as a finance officer in the Air Force during the Korean Conflict, Dean, after two years of college, enlisted and served with the United States Army Security Agency during the Korean Conflict.

His responsibility included overseeing the placement of enlisted personnel serving throughout the world for the agency in strategic military and civilian installations for the U.S. government.

Upon returning home the day after his discharge, he joined the Perry A. Johns American Legion Post No. 6 in Corinth where he has served as a continuous member for more than 30 years.

On November 11, 1972, he was given an honorary life membership, the only one awarded by the Post to a Korean Conflict Veteran.

His father was post commander for three continuous years, and his mother served as president of the auxiliary.

After graduating from Corinth High School, he earned an associate in arts degree from the Northeast Mississippi Junior College at the University of Mississippi, he earned a BBA, LLB, and juris doctorate.

He was elected a member of the Mississippi House of Representatives while a freshman in law school and four years later was elected as state senator from his home district, being the youngest person to ever hold that office from his district.

Upon graduating from law school, he began a law practice in his hometown of Corinth, where he maintains his office and practices today, professing to be a "country lawyer."

Along with other business interests, he has served as municipal judge for the past 12 years, handling chairman in 1975, and chairman in 1976, holding this position until becoming a candidate for national in excess of 2,000 cases annually.

Dean's community activities are numerous in that he has served as a member of the Administrative Board of the First United Methodist Church of Corinth and is past chairman of the local chapter of the Red Cross, past judge advocate of the local Jaycees, past member of the State Board of Directors for the Arthritis Foundation, past chairman of the local Chapter of the March of Dimes, past active worker with the local Boy Scouts, and past member and chairman of the board of trustees of the Northeast Mississippi Junior College for more than 15 years.

He was honored by the vocational and technical school complex being named "James P. Dean Hall."

He is past chairman of the Mississippi Junior College Trustee Association and past trustee of the National School Board Association, Junior College Trustee Division, and past board member of the National Association of Community College Trustees.

Dean has served on the Governor's Commission on Crime and Delinquency, the Juvenile Justice Advisory Commission, State Manpower Services Council, Legal Education Assistance Association, and was chairman of the Mississippi Athletic Commission, resigning to be a candidate for national commander.

He was appointed by President Jimmy Carter as the only veteran representing all of the veterans of the United States on the President's Council for Energy Efficiency during the energy crisis in the 70's.

Dean has been active in the American Legion by working with school award programs, oratorical contests, and baseball programs in his local post.

He has served in many local and state American Legion offices including post commander, Northern Area vice-commander, department judge advocate, and was department commander 1972-1973. He served as grand chef de gare of the State of Mississippi 1973-1974.

Dean was appointed a member of the National Internal Affairs Commission in 1974, became vice-commander.

Under his leadership many national programs were begun including energy efficiency and self-sufficiency, direct mail renewal membership, and direct membership solicitation.

The Good Neighbor Award reorganization of the Extension Institute, reorganization of PUF (life membership), supervision of the fund raising for the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, Inc., (American Legion membership raised over $1,250,000 cash donations), creation and organization of the Research and Development Division of the American Legion (today doing direct membership solicitation by direct mail, telemarketing, and television), operating and supervision of the National Leadership Workshops, SAL, National Awarding of Trophies and Awards, and National constitutional changes were instituted during his tenure in office.

Dean and his wife, Carolyn, are the parents of two daughters, Ellen and Sara.

Carolyn is an instructor in the Corinth School System; Ellen with a BS degree in nursing from the University of Tennessee, is employed with the local Community Hospital; and Sara is a pre-med student at the University of Mississippi.

Bay takes first victory 28-0 over Pass Christian

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Bay High Tigers took the wind out of the Pass Christian Pirates' sails Friday with a 28-0 defeat.

The victory, a district and conference game, was the first win for the 1986 Tigers, who were defeated in their season opener by Stone County. The game was the second loss for the Pirates.

"They're tough. They're much better than we expected them to be," Pirate Head Coach Alton Wright said after the game.

"It was (Brian) Laneaux. He killed us," he said.

"From looking at the film of their game against Stone, we thought we could handle him."

Bay and Pass Christian both lost several players to injuries during the game, with those on the Pirate side occurring early in the game.

Pirate John Lizana, a tackle, and Chris Dedeaux, who plays center and nose guard, may be out for next week's game against St. Martin.

Wright said, Defensive End Nathan Bernard also had to be removed from the game after suffering heat prostration.

"We had a let-down in our line early in the game because of those injuries. We had to play ninth graders out there. They played hard but they lack experience."

He named Quarterback Shinnall Conway as outstanding on offense and defensive linebacker Jason Dedeaux as outstanding on defense.

Some of the Tigers' injury problems were carried over from the previous game, Bay Head Coach Cleveland Williams said.

"Our center was gone and we were missing both guards and the strong side tackle. That took a lot away from our basic offensive scheme," Williams said.

Center Billy Ross and Guard Geja Carter had been injured in the Stone game. Guard Greg Necaise and Tackle Jerry Island were injured Friday.

All four are expected to be back for the Tigers' game against Pearl River Central next week.

"We had to play rookies and we ended up running mostly straight power plays. Those boys just did a tremendous job."

Substitutes included Travis Haynes at center, Courtney Laureys at guard, Amadee Collins at center and tackle.

Also substituted were Eddie Bourgeois and Mike LeGros, who normally play as receivers but ended up replacing interior linemen.

Williams termed the game "sloppy," but said he had expected a lot of errors and penalties under the circumstances.

"When you're playing people out of position, what can you expect but a sloppy game?" he said.

However, he added that he is concerned about this week's performance because penalties and errors could be costly when the Tigers face Pearl River Central.

Laneaux, who had 142 yards rushing and scored 10 points, was named outstanding offensive player.

Williams credited Aaron Whavers and Mark Haverly, a pair of backs, for a good job taking some of the load off Laneaux.

Hawks.....

a penalty against PRC moved the ball half the distance to the goal giving Hancock first and 10 on the 13-yard line.

Lewis moved it four yards and Favre scored on a keeper from nine yards out.

With the point after touchdown by Prince the Hawks advanced to 28-0 with a minute left in the third quarter.

The Blue Devils regained possession and took the ball to the Hancock 28 before turning it over on the downs.

Hawk Jeff Moran ran for a 34-yard gain and a first down. Brian Myers added nine yards and Tim Cox gained 10.

Talrus Jackson added five and Cox ran again for 10.

Penalties and an incomplete forced the Hawks to turn the ball over to PRC.

The Blue Devils began the drive with a fumble that Tillman recovered for no loss of yards.

Tillman tossed the ball to Sean Dussau for a six-yard gain.

The Blue Devil quarterback connected with Ken Herrera who ran it into the endzone for a 60-yard touchdown play.

The PAT snap was bad and the extra point attempt was unsuccessful.

The Hawks regained possession and made two first downs before time ran out.

The final score was Hancock 28, Pearl River Central 6.
Next week Hancock North Central will host the Stone County Tomcats. Both teams have a two win and no loss record. Kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m.

Assistant Coach G.L. McRaney also praised the performance turned in by Dwayne Robertson, who was credited with two interceptions, one of which started a Tiger touchdown drive.

McRaney also said Robertson did well defensively as a free safety.

Williams said Chad LaFontaine impressed him as a relief player for Robertson.

"He was able to pass a little Friday. He is going to be a good one," the coach said.

Bay Assistant Coach Bob Lumpkin Wayne Karl outstanding on defense, crediting him with a strong performance for two consecutive weeks.

"Greg Necaise had a fine game the first half, until he got hurt," Lumpkin added.

"We did play much better on our defensive secondary but we still have a lot of work to do."

"The defense was tremendous. We had a real good pass defense. We really stuck to them and the ends did their job by keeping Conway inside and forcing him to run up the middle," Williams said.

Williams also said Andrew Collins did a good job at split end and wingback, and running punts back on special teams and Britt Woods did well at free safety.

"We were able to do another important thing on defense and that was keep ball away from Derrick Benoit. We felt if he ever got the ball he would be trouble because he can maneuver through the secondary," Williams added.

The game featured a scoreless first quarter, with the Tiger defense effectively containing Conway.

The Pirates received to begin a first drive that included a 38-yard run for Conway that set Pass Christian up on the Tiger 21 yard line.

The drive ended a few minutes later when Karl picked up a dropped Pirate Pass on the nine.

In second quarter action, the Tigers started a drive that ended with a touchdown for Whavers.

Laneaux set up the play by running for long yardage, then turned the ball over to Whavers, who carried it 11 yards for the first six points.

Laneaux kicked the extra point to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead with 11:06 left in the first half.

The Tigers second touchdown was scored with only 19 seconds left before the halftime whistle.

Laneaux set up the play with a 55-yard run that brought the Tigers to deep inside Pirate territory. A 10-yard pass from Robertson to Robert Hargett posted another six points on the scoreboard.

Laneaux kicked a second extra point to post a halftime score of 14-0.

In second half action, Laneaux went back to work on the scoreboard, scoring a touchdown on a 35-yard run with 5:51 to go in the third quarter.

He followed his touchdown with an extra point kick to bring the score to 21-0.

Pass Christian relieved the kick and started another drive, but the Tiger defense contained Conway again.

The drive ended one play later on the Pirates' own 47 yard line when Hargett scooped up a Pass fumble and carried it back to the Pirate 25.

The Tigers returned the ball to the Pirates after an unsuccessful field goal attempt.

"After one turnover, the Tigers scored again on a 50-yard touchdown run by Dante Curry."

Laneaux kicked the extra point, posting a final score of 28-0 for a Tiger victory.

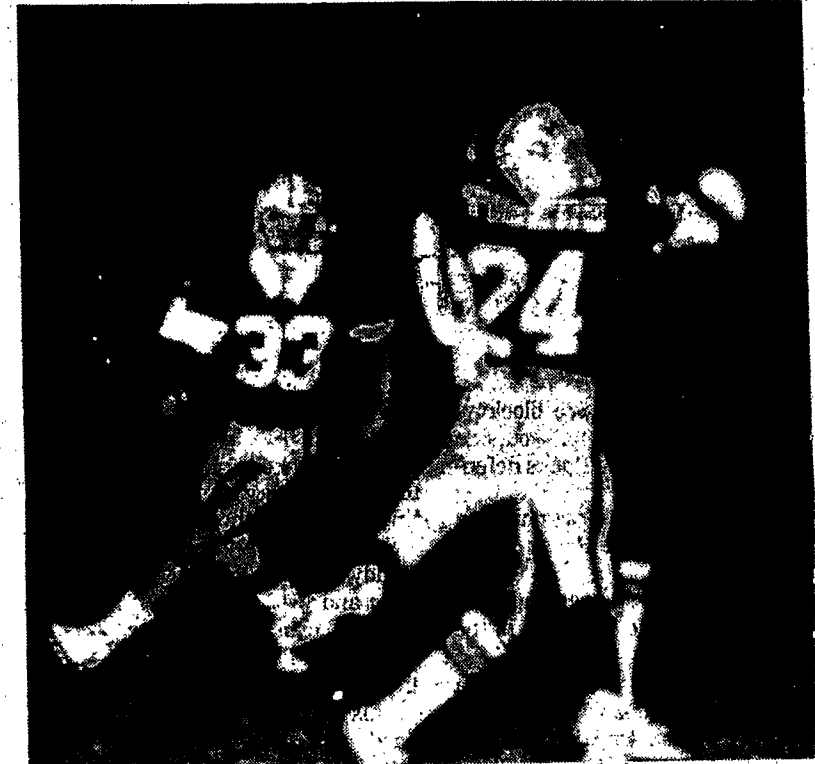

The Tigers next game will be on the road against Pearl River Central. The Pirates travel to St. Martin.

To our many customers who shop at our two Airline stores

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE

during our remodeling. We have now completed the relocation of our Drug Store into the main selling area at our 2701 Airline store. This move was made in response to many customer requests, and we feel that it will add to your shopping convenience.

The main selling area renovations for both Airline stores have been finished and in order to assist you, we have located customer service personnel in the stores and have also updated our store directory, which can be picked up at the Customer Service Desk.

At this time we would also like to make you aware of our future renovation plans for the 2701 Airline store. These changes will in no way affect the main selling area, but will give the overall store a more pleasant and enjoyable atmosphere in which to "Make Groceries".

1. In order for our customers to have better communication and a more personal relationship with our pharmacist, the pharmacy department will be moved downstairs.

2. Additional restroom facilities will be constructed and existing facilities remodeled.

3. Also, enlargement and modernization of our baking and del departments.

Additionally, the Produce Departments in both Airline stores will be enlarged in order to facilitate a wider variety of items as well as enhance the appearance of these departments.

Please watch for our in-store, unadvertised "Making Savings" specials. It is our way of thanking you for your patience and your patronage.

Military Mention

CADET DELPH
Cadet Eric R. Delph, son of Joseph M. Delph of 120 deMontluzin Ave., Bay St. Louis, and Anna H. Rohrbach of 143 Claiborne Ave., Satellite Beach, Fla., has completed a U.S. Air Force ROTC field training encampment at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. Field training, attended by cadets normally between their second and third year of college, gives an opportunity to evaluate each student's potential as an officer, according to an Air Force spokesman.

The summer's curriculum consists of orientations on jet aircraft, career opportunities, human relations education and equal opportunity training. Physical fitness and survival training is also emphasized. The field training is four weeks, but cadets in the two-year ROTC program receive an additional two weeks of instruction in the development of air power and the contemporary Air Force. Delph is a student at Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta.

Whereabouts of local businessman unknown

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The whereabouts of Hancock County businessman T.C. Jones, owner of T.C. Jones Nursery & Supplies, is being investigated by the Hancock County sheriff's office.

Sheriff Ronnie Peterson on Wednesday said, "Jones, who was reportedly last seen Thursday night at his business place in Diamonthead, has not been heard from since."

"Everyone we have talked to who knows Jones, indicates it would be highly unlikely for him to have left home without telling anyone,"
Peterson added.

None of Jones' family vehicles are missing, Peterson stated.

Jones, 57, is described as five foot seven inches tall, 170-175 pounds, brown eyes, balding grey hair, and always wearing a jump suit.

Peterson is asking anyone who may have seen him since Thursday night, or has any information to his whereabouts, to please call his office at 467-5101.

Peterson, Hancock County
Criminal Investigators Delbert
Seay, Glen Strong, and Alvin
Ladner, and Hancock County Deputy Sheriff's Nathan Hoda and James Ladner, have been combing the area for information on Jones.

Whereabouts of local businessman unknown

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The whereabouts of Hancock County businessman T.C. Jones, owner of T.C. Jones Nursery & Supplies, is being investigated by the Hancock County sheriff's office.

Sheriff Ronnie Peterson on Wednesday said, "Jones, who was reportedly last seen Thursday night at his business place in Diamondhead, has not been heard from since."

"Everyone we have talked to who knows Jones, indicates it would be highly unlikely for him to have left home without telling anyone," Peterson added.

None of Jones' family vehicles are missing, Peterson stated.

Jones, 57, is described as five foot seven inches tall, 170-175 pounds, brown eyes, balding grey hair, and always wearing a jump suit.

Peterson is asking anyone who may have seen him since Thursday night, or has any information to his whereabouts, to please call his office at 467-5101.

Peterson, Hancock County Criminal Investigators Delbert Seay, Glen Strong, and Alvin Ladner, and Hancock County Deputy Sheriff's Nathan Hoda and James Ladner, have been combing the area for information on Jones.

One arrested, one sought in Tuesday grand larceny

BY DENA BISNETTE

George Perry Imel, 42, of Mobile, Ala., has been arrested and charged with grand larceny in Hancock County.

Imel was arrested by Hancock County Sheriff's Deputy Joe Pica Tuesday after Pica found Imel and another person attempting to steal an outboard motor, Investigator Glen Strong said.

The second suspect is still being sought.

Strong said a neighbor heard noise coming from a house on Harrison Street and contacted the sheriff's department.

The house was a weekend home owned by a Louisiana resident and was not occupied at the time of the larceny.

Imel was released on $20,000 bond. Strong is in charge of the investigation, which is continuing.
